To Whom It May Concern:

Re: Reference for Kaplan Leamon & Wolfe

At the request of Kelli Jastrzembki of KLW, I am writing to confirm this office's very positive experience with KLW's service and price. We are plaintiff's counsel in a complex civil matter involving an extensive deposition program in Philadelphia, Washington, Dallas-Fort Worth and Chicago. KLW made all the arrangements for the reporter and videographer (which also included, for some of the depositions, additional technology support), all of whom were very nice people and very competent at their work; the transcripts and videos were produced very quickly; and the pricing (which was honored across all locations, despite higher market rates in some of those cities) was very fair to us. I could not be happier with this relationship which we intend to continue with other cases.

Sincerely,

/s/ Irv Ackelsberg
